

I fully support the NJ Do Not Call Law, and believe it should not be changed. Having a family with young children and two working parents, I value my evening time at home with the family. Before the Do Not Call Law, we were constantly bothered with unwanted telemarketing calls. Now with the law in place we haven't receive any unwanted calls.